First of Series To Be Played Friday Afternoon-Chicks Lose Second to Travelers by Score of 7-3.

BY BOB PIGUE.

Strang Nicklin and his Chattanooga Lookouts, who are at present occupying the callar in the Southern league flag hunt, arrived in Memphis at noon Friday, ready for a three-day stay in Memphis.
The first of the three-game series between the Chicks and Lookouts will be played Friday afternoon at 4 e'clock. The two clubs will also play on Saturday and Sunday.
Pat Albris will pitch for the Chicks in the opener, while either Cunningham or York will get the call for the Chattanoogans.

TRAVELERS EVEN SERIES.

ing at three each at the beginning of the seventh, Chief McCloshev, of the Chicks, removed Dazzy Vance in Iaver of Tiny Goodbred and the Travelers proceeded to haske a parade ground of the diamond. Four Travelers scored in the seventh and won the ball game by the score of 7 to 2. Futch Hengeveld started for Little Ross, but was unsteady all the way. At the starting of the sixth Manager Elberfeld sent in Rubs Robinson, and the Rubs was the boy the rest of the way, holding the Chicks in the hollow of his portside paw, and never giving the Tribs a look in for a taily.

in for a taily.

The Chicks scored one in the first inning, when, with one gone, Sloan walked and Griffin followed with a double to right, purting Sloan on third, from whence he counted on High's sacrifice fig to Miller after MeLarry had been purposely walked. The Travelers tied in the third when Zeelers spened with a double to center, took third on Hengeveld's sacrifice, and scored when the squeeze play was put on, Distel bunting in front of the plate and going out at first as Zeellers registered.

CHICKS TAKE LEAD AGAIN

In the fourth the Chicks took the lead again. High walked and Blades bunted into Hengeveid paws, but Dutch threw the ball into right field trying to get it to Wano. High reaching third and Blades going to second. Blachoff shot a single to center and High counted. Blachoff was picked off second by Brottem to Distel. Collenberger dropped a short fly to Miller with no advance, and Vance hoisted to Miller for the last out.

and Vance hoisted to Miller for the last out.

The Travelers immediately field it up in the fifth. Hengeveld opened with a single, and Distel bunied him to second. Moore shot a single to center and Dutch registered. In the fifth the Chicks again went into the lead when Griffin lifted the ball over the left field seats for a home run.

In the sixth the Travelers field it again, when Wano hit the ball over the right field wall for the circuit.

In the seventh the grand blow-off came. The score was 3-3. Zoeliers, the first Traveler to face Vance, doubled to right. Robinson tried to bunt, but popped into Vance's paws.

THE FIREWORKS START.

Goodbred then took the hill and the fireworks started. Distel combed a single to left that scored Zoellers with what proved the winning run. Moore singled to center and Distel was thrown out at the plate by Carroll, who made a wonderful throw to get Distel. Harper walked and Miller doubled to left, scoring Moore, and when the ball was played to second to get Miller, Rarper scored. Brottem's double to left scored Miller with the fourth run of the inning. Wano grounded out to McLarry, ending the inning.

The first man to face Robby was High, who was hit by a pliched ball. Blades bunted him to second, but Bischoff lined to Distel, who touched second, completing a double play unassisted. In the seventh Collenberger opesed with a single and was forced by Goodbred. Carroll singled through Zoellers. Sloan forced Goodbred as Goodbred. Carroll singled through Zoellers. Sloan forced Goodbred at third and Griffin lifted to Harper. In the ninth Bischoff walked and Collen-barger hoisted to Harper. Meyers batted for Goodbred and lifted to Zoel-lers, and Carroll etded the game by grounding out to Wano.

Moore and Harper came near having a fight in the third, when, with Moore on third and Harper on first, the double steal was attempted. Moore did not attempt to score while Harper was being run down, and they jawed at each other considerably before cooling off.

Thy Goodbred served as base umple until he was called on to go into the until he was called on to go into the box in the seventh. Tiny missed a cou-ple of plays on the Chicks.

Umpire Hadiey Williams had to call upon somebody to help him out, as Thursday was supposed to be an off day and Umpire Pfirman did not arrive.

Pfirman got here Friday and will officiate with Williams in the Friday affair.

Kid Elberfeld, Little Rock manager, showed up at Russwood Thursday with a dark blue lump under his left eye. Life to the Kid is just one blue lump after another.

Pug Griffin, Chick left fielder, gathered in a few grapes in the fifth after he had put the Chicks out in front with a belt over the left field seats. It was a terrific drive and bounced up against the scoreboard before saming to a stop George Bischoff was caught napping

George Bischoff was caught napping in the fourth, when the Chicks were trying to score a few runs, and was picked off second.

Dazzy Vance, the first Chick pitcher, gets credit for losing the game, as he put Zoellers on the bags to start the seventh with a two-bagser, and he later scored with what proved to be the winning run.

In the fifth inning, with McLarry or first and two balls called on Andy High the hit and run signal was flashed, but evidently Andy missed it, for he to the pext puch go by window offering at it, and McLarry was caught between first and second.

Tony Brottem, Traveler catcher, had a big day with the wood Thursday, He got a three-bagger, a two-bagger and a single in four times up

Chief Wane, rething first sacker a Travelers, followed Pug Griffins Isa, and proceeded to put the Travelers on even terms with the Chicks with a heir over the right field wall.

Dutch Hengavalid, was started for Little Rock, got a real wild heave out of his system in the fourth, when he took Blades' bust and linew it to the right field tence through Wano.

In the rinth inning Andy High gor two purouss and one assist, taking Dis-tel's line drive, Moore's paperp and then throwing Harper out at first.

Tiny Goodhred was rapped for four tits in the seventh, each other of which was a clean smack by Traveler hitters

SPORTING

There has been a lot of discussion among local fans since Thursday's game, when Chief McCloskey, of the Chicks, removed Dazzy Vance and inserted Tiny Goodbred on the hill against the Travelers in the seventh inning, as to whether it was a wise move on the part of the Chick chieftain.

As things turned out, it didn't look good for McCloskey, for the Traveliers lit upon Goodbred with both feet and soon scored enough runs to win the game. The score was 3.3 when vance was removed. Dazzy was being hit hard by the Travelers, but he had pulled out of several holes. Whether he would have continued to emerge unscathed forever remains a secret, for he never had a chance to try it.

to emerge unscatned forever to mains a secret, for he never had a chance to try it.

On the other hand, the Chicka could do absolutely nothing with Rube Robinson. They weren't getting anywhere close to scoring. The score, as stated, was 3 and 3. The Chicks didn't deserve to win for they couldn't get another run.

Goodbred wasn't warm when he went into the box, and he was hit hard by the Travelers. Vance stated that he had a sore arm when he went into the box.

We are inclined to string along with McCloskey's judgment, which, although it turned out bad on this occasion, was dene in an effort to check the Travelers, who were threatening every minute to beat Vance.

KID WORKS HENGY.

Kid Elberfeld, Little Rock manager, s working Dutch Hengeveld, right-ander, to death, as was evident in Thursday's game. Dutch wasn't there, showing signs of staleness and over-showing signs of stateness and overwork.

The Kid has always been prone to work one good pitcher until he dropped, and the case of Joe Martina in days gone by is cited. Joe was a bear and was pitching great ball, and the Kid worked him so often that he soon lost his effectiveness, and rulned himself for three or four seasons. Joe never got to be the same pitcher he was before he was under the Kid's direction.
Hengeveld will go the same way unless he gets the proper rest. It doesn't take long until a pitcher burns out at the rate the Kid works him, and unless Dutch is given a few more days to rest his wing, he'll pass out just like Martina.

Dixie Carroll, Chick center fielder, did some great fielding in Thursday's Little Rock-Memphis game.
Dixie grabbed a couple of line drives that looked to go safe. Dixie is without question one of the greatest outfielders in the Southern league, both offensively and defensively.
His work has been brilliant all year.

ANSWER TO QUERY.

Dear Sir—Please decide this question;
Runners on second and third base, two men are out. The batter hits for two bases, both runners crossing the plate.
The batter failed to touch first base
and is called out by the base umpire.
The umpire behind the plate called one runner safe and entitled to score. Is he correct? GRILLE.
Greenville, Miss.
Neither runner was entitled to score on the play, as the batter technically never reached first base and was out.

The umpire behind the plate called one runner safe and entitled to score and the correct?

Greenville, Miss.

Neither runner was entitled to score on the play, as the batter technically never reached first base and was out.

CUB SCOUT HERE.

Jack Doyle, who is scouting for the Chicago Cubs, is in Memphis looking over the Chicks and Lookouts. Jack is on a hint for baseball talent, and has already been up through the Eastern part of the country, with little success. He says high-class and promising talent is very scarce this season.

Poyle is a former big leaguer, having been a star first baseman with the oid Baltimore Orioles, many years ago. Since quitting baseball Jack has been umpiring out on the Pacific coast, and serving as an ivory hunter for major league teams.

Doyle is paying his first visit to the Southern this season, and plans to go to every city in the circuit before he returns to Chicago. He has several players in mind that he wants to see in case of the season, but may yet make it interesting.

The race in the American league is lightening up—in fact too much so for he peace of mind of Speaker of Cleveand, Huggins of the Yanks, Gleason of the Sox, and Barrow, the manager of the Boston Red Sox. True the latier team is in the throes of a slump ust now, with their best man—Hooper—in the hospital; Hendryx out with an njury, and Hoyt probably gone for the cest of the season. But withal the Sox lave shown class and may yet make t interesting.

Thursday the lowly Detroit Tigers came to life and downed the Yankees. At the same time Cleveland, recovering from a four-game joit at chicago, bumped Washington for two games and again took the lead. It was an awful joit for Washington as some of the bugs up there had started raving over just what part of the field would suit best for a pennant pole. For, know ye, the Senators have just trounced the Yankees for three in four.

One of the most hopeful signs for the Cleveland adherents was the return of Guy Morton. All saason Coveleskie, Barby and Caldwell have been carrying the brunt of the pitching and are well nigh worked out. Should Morton really have arrived, then Speaker and his crew are going to be hard to beld. In their two cleahes with the Morton really have arrived, then Speaker and his crew are going to be hard to hold. In their two clashes with the Yanks, once at home and once in New York, Spoke's men have copped 5 of the $$ games, thus showing that, Ruth notwithstanding, the Indians, have a better ball club than Huggins can put in the field.

If the Yanks do fail to come under the wire, the old alibi is all framed. Lewis, the rifle-shot outfielder, has been out for some time with a bum leg and his absence is felt.

The White Sox, with their pitchers rounding to and Joe Jackson busting everything that comes to the plate, are making a bid. Their best hope is in their pitchers. The question is can Cicotte hold it all or will Williams, Kerr and Faber be able to deliver their share?

share? Anyway it goes there's bound to be a grand old fight with Cleveland the best bet because they happen to have the wisest and most aggressive man in baseball managing the club. And if you don't believe he's centerfielding for them, just get you a job in the American and bust one down toward center field fence and then watch your batting average slump.

Over in the National, Cincinnati, last year's bearcats, have competition in juley gobs. The Cubs are working better than at any time in the last two years; Brooklyn is strong, and if a one-man team can win the pennant don't be surprised if Rogers Horneby doesn't drag that old St. Louis outfit right square into the world's serious 'n was forced to return home before the qualifying day.

Bobby Jones is playing some golf right now, and his game will be watched with more than ordinary interest, especially as it will be in an early 1920 tourney with Evans. These two have yet to meet in a really hig competition. Bobby got to the national finals last year, but Evans had fallen by the wayside in the first matches.

Just once they have played together here. This was in a Red Cross match, two summers ago. At the time Evans bested Jones in medal play, but the Atlanta phenom defeated "Chick" in match play, one up. Incidentally Evans has played the Country club course four times and yet has to beat 72.

Some betting already is being made that none will break 70 next week. The course should be in dandy shape for rains several days ago put it in fine condition. Unless an unusually hot sun comes out to bake the greens they will be fast and tricky enough to test the best of the putters.
